Hit the office of Levante Fuji Shizuoka

The My JATCO editorial department is looking forward to the Mt. Fuji cycle road race in a month and a half.

Directly hit the office of Te Fuji Shizuoka. Yasuhiro Ninohe, GM, and Izuru Fujinomiya, who is expected to participate in the race

Body "Mario Takanashi" player, height promoted from the lower team this year

We have interviewed 190cm tall newcomer "Natsume Takato".

Fuji City Cycle Station on the 1st floor of the office *commonly known as "Fujikuru"

State of the interview. From the left, GM Ninohe, Takanashi, and Natsume

Q. Ask GM Ninohe! The 2023 season is about to begin. How is your team doing?

Ninohe: Everyone at JATCO, it's been a while. This is Ninohe from Levante Fuji Shizuoka. this year Thank you for supporting our team.

This year's team just got a new system in January, but it's been 4 years as a team.

This season is a very young team with 6 new members. 9 out of 11 players are in Shizuoka

We have set up a practice base, and I think we have become a team that is more and more rooted in the region.

The players to watch are two Mongolian players who have been showing results since last year (Maral and Evo) hands). Two people who originally had the ability of Asia's top class, in the Japanese racing environment

I'm also expecting to get used to it and pull the team even more. In addition,

Niel (Denmark) ranks high in the world at the virtual cycle race competition

It is a powerful person who is in. He's still young at 22, but I'm paying attention to his ability.

Other Japanese players on the team will be playing games, practicing, and playing on the day from these three overseas players.

By learning and stimulating in all aspects of everyday life, and by setting high goals, you can greatly improve your abilities.

I think it will be a chance to skip.

Takanashi, who will be interviewed today, has improved considerably over the past two years, so now

I think he will step up to a higher rank player next year, and Natsume

Players were promoted from the lower team (* Natsume transferred from LEVANTE HOPE this term).

As for his hands, he is very tall and a big rookie, so I expect him to grow.

Q. What is your goal for this year?

Ninohe: This is my third year in the JCL, but I haven't won yet. team However, I have a strong desire to produce results, and my goal is to win once this year. stop and increase media exposure by producing results and actively participate in local events. We would like to increase the name recognition not only in Fuji city but also in Shizuoka prefecture by adding I think.

Q.I'm aiming for the podium in this tournament!

Ninohe: Last year was the first local race, and only two people from the team advanced to the final. Since there was nothing, I developed an aggressive escape race. of Levante Fuji Shizuoka While we were able to show our presence, it was a disappointing result as we weren't able to leave a good result. this year is to have more riders advance to the final race, and to spread the message, "There is a Levante in Fuji City." I would like to develop a race aiming for the podium while showing the performance, so please look forward to it. Please!

Q. How to enjoy the Mt. Fuji Cycle Road Race for beginners watching road races

Ninohe: The Mt. Fuji Cycle Road Race will be held with 6 people per team. In qualifying More than 100 athletes will participate, so first look for the Levante Fuji Shizuoka team. please give me. Look for the orange and green uniform. And the Levante squad When you find one, get as close to the course as possible to watch. Cheering is the power of the players Also, since the race is held in the city, the spectator seats and the course should be close to each other. The sound of the wind ripping apart by the bicycle and the sound of changing gears, etc. Enjoy the race.

In particular, in the corner of the Fuji City Cultural Center Rose Theater, the athletes who were speeding After decelerating, it turns back and accelerates to top speed again, so it is a powerful ride in the crowd. You can see an offensive and defensive battle.

Taken from the pedestrian bridge in Fuji Central Park  (* General spectators cannot go up to the pedestrian bridge)

And downhill towards Fuji City Hall. This straight line is where athletes pedal with all their might. and a maximum speed of 60-70km/You can see the scene running through in about h. the You can fully enjoy the speed that cuts through the wind, the sound of the tires, and the breath of the players. I think.

In addition, the position of the racer's running course changes greatly depending on the wind direction of the day.

But this may be a little bit of a way to enjoy for experts (lol)

A straight course heading to Fuji City Hall. Maximum speed is 60-70km/h

Ask Levante player, "Look at me here!"

Takanashi: Hello everyone at JATCO. I'm Mari Takanashi from Fujinomiya City, Shizuoka Prefecture.

On the team's website, I wrote "Sprinter"

The job is to do your best in the last few hundred meters of the race)", but the bicycle race

The strength is that you can accelerate and start running immediately after slowing down. Acceleration immediately after deceleration

Although the physical strength is reduced, I am practicing repeatedly to increase my resistance, so

In the cycle road race, it rises from the turning corner in front of the Rose Theater

And pay attention to the sprint in front of the goal on the final lap. We will definitely come back at the top!
